Artillery Officer With Long War Record Will Be Speaker July 2; Army Band To Play

A concert by the Second Army concert band and an address by Major Clift Andrus, deputy commander of the Second Army, will feature the Sunday program to be held in connection with the five-day observance of the 87th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg.

Congressman James F. Lind of York will act as master of ceremonies for the affair, to be held, beginning at 7 o'clock Sunday evening at the high school athletic field.

A luncheon will be held at the Hotel Gettysburg for General Andrus and other distinguished guests Sunday before the concert. Members of the Second Army band will be entertained by the Elks lodge.

Native Of Kansas

General Andrus was born at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., October 12, 1890. He was commissioned in the regular army as a second lieutenant of field artillery on April 24, 1912. He accompanied his regiment to Texas for border patrol duty in 1914.

In July, 1917, he was assigned as an instructor in the school of fire and in August, 1918, he went to Camp McClellan, Ala., to organize the 34th field artillery. In May, 1919, he was ordered to Europe for duty at Treves, Germany.

Returning to the United States a short time later, he spent the next few years in Washington in various capacities, including instructor of National Guard units. He also completed courses in the field artillery school and general staff school.

In 1930 he was assigned to duty at Schofield barracks, Hawaii. He returned to this country in 1933 and enrolled in the Army War college, then entered the Naval War college, graduating from both. He went back to Schofield barracks in 1941. Upon the reorganization of the Hawaiian division he commanded the 24th artillery division, during the time the Japanese delivered their December 7 attack on Oahu.

At Omaha Beach

On May 5, 1942, he became artillery commander of the first division and the following August he accompanied the division to Europe and in December, 1944, assumed command of it.

His service included the Pearl Harbor attack and continuous campaign service in Africa, Sicily and Europe. During this period the first division made landings at Oran, Algeria, at Gela, Sicily, and at Omaha Beach in Normandy. It participated in 444 days of front line combat and many of its units, including the artillery, fought over 100 additional days detached from the division under other American or British commands.

General Andrus returned to the United States in May, 1946, to become commandant of the artillery school at Ft. Sill, Okla. In April, 1949, he was assigned to the organization and training division of the general staff, later becoming director of the division.

He holds several American and foreign decorations, among the latter the French Fourragere, the Belgian Fourragere, the French Legion d'honneur and the French Croix de guerre with palm.

He was made major general (permanent) on January 24, 1948, with date of rank from August 28, 1944.

Cycles 2,300 Miles To Boy Scout Jamboree

Jim Wright, 16-year-old Saskatoon, Canada, Boy Scout, hoped to arrive in Valley Forge today to join the National Boy Scout Jamboree. The Canadian youngster visited in Gettysburg Tuesday, after having completed 2,300 miles of travel enroute to Valley Forge. All of the 2,300 miles has been made on bicycle.

Peddling the distance in 25 days, Wright told employees at the Spud-nut shop, on York street, where he stopped to eat Tuesday afternoon, that his trip was a short one compared to a 5,000 mile journey made by his brother on the same bicycle last year.

He plans to visit in Philadelphia and New York on bicycle after the Jamboree, then return home by train from New York.

Interested in historic sites, he saw part of the battlefield, and started the first person he met with a question that local people think no one need ask.

The Canadian youngster asked: "What war was this battlefield a part of?"

FIREMEN WILL SET UP TENTS FOR FESTIVAL

The general committee of the Gettysburg fire company in charge of the June 30, July 1, 2, 3 and 4 celebration here commemorating the 87th anniversary of the Battle of Gettysburg, will begin setting up its tents and equipment for its festival on the recreation grounds tonight.

While the firemen cannot take possession of the soft ball field until after the second game tonight, tents and equipment will be moved to the field earlier, and Co-Chairman James S. Shenk today issued an appeal for firemen to turn out and help with the work, beginning at 7 o'clock. They are to report at the engine house with saws and hammers.

Games Postponed

There will be no softball games until after July 4. The festival will be set up under the lights at the diamond, using the outfield.

The committee in charge of the children's program at the recreation field Friday evening announced today that the age limit for those participating in the greased pig and greased pole contest has been reduced. Both will be open to children not more than 12 years of age. A previous top limit of 15 years had been announced.

Elks To Have Float

The general committee also announced today that the Gettysburg Lodge of Elks will have a float in the Fourth of July parade. The Elks were not included in the parade formation announced Tuesday.

The Elks will also provide a 5:30 supper for members of the Second Army concert band Sunday. The band will give a concert at the high school athletic field at 7 o'clock.

The Gettysburg National bank will provide meals at the recreation field for the troops from Ft. Meade Tuesday night.

SCOUTS BUILD "DINING ROOM" AT JAMBOREE

Adam's county's 14 participants in the national Boy Scout Jamboree at Valley Forge are all well—and very busy. Merrill A. Yohe, Sr. New Oxford, R. 2, assistant scoutmaster for Jamboree Troop 20 reported by phone to The Gettysburg Times today.

The York-Adams contingent arrived at Valley Forge at 1:30 o'clock Tuesday afternoon following a parade of 115 boys and adults attending the Jamboree from the two counties through York and then a trip by bus to Valley Forge.

Tired from their day activities the youngsters fell asleep early Tuesday evening, and the camp was quiet through the night, Yohe said.

This morning the youngsters were busily engaged in setting up their "dining room." The "dining room" consists of four tables, one for each patrol in Troop 20, with a canvas roof. Originally it was planned for each patrol to have its own individual "dining room" with a table under a canvas roof, but the group decided it would prove more satisfactory to have a troop dining center.

County youngsters who are members of Troop 20 include R. Alan Carper, New Oxford, R. 2; John A. Codori, Jr., 405 York street; Frank Ehman, Biglerville; Lee G. Kroust, East King street, Littlestown; Thomas Schriver, 7 West High street, New Oxford; Merrill Yohe, Jr., Thomas R. Ziegler, Gettysburg, R. 3, and Philip H. Kenworthy, 41 East Broadway.

Other county scouts are in Troop 21 and Explorer unit 22.

Hundreds Of Scouts Visit Here Enroute To Jamboree

Army khaki mingled with the tan uniforms of Boy Scouts, the green of Explorer Scouts and the blue and yellow of Cub Scouts on the battlefield of Gettysburg today.

More than 1,000 Boy Scouts from several cities poured into historic Gettysburg enroute to the national Boy Scout Jamboree which opens at equally historic Valley Forge Friday.

The great majority of the "tourists" who toured the battlefield and took snapshots everywhere, were Boy Scouts. There were a number of the green-clad Explorer Scouts, however, and a few of the younger boys, the Cubs.

The army khaki was worn by approximately 500 troops from the Aberdeen, Md., proving grounds who toured the battlefield this afternoon. They arrived in 12 buses.

Five bus loads of scouts, 180 from Sandusky, Ohio, and 190 from Winchester, Ky., toured the battlefield this morning. Lectures were given on

Mercury Drops 40 Degrees In Several Hours

Temperatures dropped so fast and so far Tuesday evening that Adams countians who sweltered in high 80 and low 90 degree heat for the past several days, actually shivered.

The mercury climbed to 92 last Saturday, and zoomed to a blistering 94 on Monday. The highest Tuesday, before the big drop, was 89, which isn't exactly cool, although a brisk breeze relieved the heat and humidity.

Then during the early part of the evening the temperature started dropping. What was first a relief from the heat later became the cause for the donning of coats and rolling down of shirt sleeves.

The mercury went to 54 during the night and this morning was up to only 66. The cooler weather is only a temporary relief, however, the weatherman said.

The mercury today, he promised, would not go higher than 80 degrees in eastern Pennsylvania.

FRIENDLY TOWN RESERVATIONS CLOSE JULY 7

Adams countians planning to provide a two weeks vacation for New York city youngsters have already begun placing their requests with the county's Friendly Town committee.

Mrs. Henry T. Bream, county chairman, said the first request came from a local woman who is seeking to entertain two sisters at her home during the period from July 27 to August 10. A number of other countians, who had "Fresh Air" youngsters with them last year for two weeks or more have asked to have the same children as their guests again this year.

Those who wish to have the youngsters — all from low-income families in New York city,—should contact the members of the county Friendly Town committee prior to July 7, Mrs. Bream said.

Herald Tribune Fund

Funds raised by the New York Herald Tribune are used to pay for the transportation of the children to and from the homes where they will spend their two weeks vacation. Each child is given a thorough physical examination prior to leaving for the country and in addition any cost for any medical care needed is paid by the Herald Tribune fund.

The only cost to the person having a child in his home for the two weeks is the cost of providing food for the youngster, and any sums for entertainment that the person taking the child may wish to spend.

Last year 21 children were entertained in 17 county homes and the Friendly Town committee hopes to have more than that number brought here this year.

Committee Members Listed

Under the program the requests for children, according to the age level, sex, and religion, if so requested, are forwarded to New York. The youngsters are selected according to the requests and are shipped under supervision of a nurse by train to Harrisburg. There members of the Friendly Town committee meet the youngsters and bring them to Gettysburg.

LICENSED TO WED

Cristophor C. Springer and Lottie A. Miller, Emmitsburg, have secured a wedding license in Frederick.

H. D. RIDINGER TO HEAD FUND DRIVE FOR R.C.

Harry D. Ridinger, county register and recorder, was named Tuesday evening by the directors of the Adams County Red Cross as chairman of the 1951 fund raising committee with John Stahle as co-chairman.

Other members of the committee include Richard Drees, who served as fund chairman this year, Attorney Edward B. Bullett, Attorney Charles Wolf and Mrs. Joseph Heiney.

Disaster preparedness was discussed by the group. Present plans call for distribution to key people of a pamphlet outlining the activities of the chapter's disaster committee and listing the names and telephone numbers of members of the committee.

Need Home Nurses

The need for many persons trained in home nursing was outlined, and the chapter is planning to hold a home nursing course for instructors on September 5 through 8 at Christ Lutheran church. Most of the school nurses have already enrolled for the course, Mrs. Elizabeth Pennington, Red Cross secretary, said. The chapter also expressed the hope that teachers of home economics and physical education will also enroll in the course.

Work of the Red Cross in connection with "one-family disasters" was discussed. The possibility of establishing a "minor disaster committee" to function at times when a family's home is destroyed by fire was outlined. The committee would be responsible for mobilizing local resources on a cooperative basis to meet the needs of individual families in emergencies.

Coordinate Work

Under the plan fire or police departments would notify the Red Cross upon discovering families needing assistance. The Red Cross would arrange for emergency needs of shelter, clothing, food and medical care. After the immediate needs are handled, Mrs. Pennington said, the entire committee would meet to determine steps needed to reestablish the family.

County-wide interest has been shown in the water safety program this year, according to a report by Mrs. Edward Nowicki, chairman. Enrollment to date is 354, exclusive of the Boy Scout and Cub program at Littlestown and the cooperative course with the Recreation program at Marsh Creek Heights.

Swimming Courses

Scouts and Cubs are coming to the Battlefield pool here for training from Gardner, York Springs, Biglerville and Arendtsville, she said. A bus load of Girl Scouts and Brownies from York Springs, East Berlin, Abbotstown and New Oxford is also participating in the swimming program. At Littlestown 64 are receiving instruction.

All of the swimming classes, with the exception of life saving, are full, she added. Ten more can be included in the life saving course.

Dr. Clarence Bartholomew, chairman of the first aid committee, reported three requests for first aid (Please Turn to Page 2)

The newly-installed officers presented a gift to Ruth Tate, retiring senior regent.

Following the meeting a covered dish luncheon was held.

Each girl brought her own lunch. Games, swimming and hiking were included on the program at the park.

Charge Neighbor Blocks Right-Of-Way

Raymond J. and Mary G. Hufnagle, of Conewago township, Tuesday afternoon filed with the county prothonotary a complaint in equity by which they are seeking to have Frank C. Martz, their neighbor along the Gettysburg-Hanover road, remove a road block which is preventing their use of garages on their property.

According to the Hufnagles they have permission, according to their deed, to use a 12 foot right of way, established approximately 65 years ago, leading to their garages. Martz, they said, has blocked the right of way. A hearing will be held July 3 at 10 a.m. the county court decided, at which Martz will be required to show cause why an injunction should not be granted against him.

War Briefs

London, Jun. 28 (P)—Prime Minister Attlee announced Britain has decided to place its naval forces in Japanese water at the disposal of the United States to support American action in South Korea.

Washington, June 28 (P)—A Pentagon spokesman said Seoul apparently was captured by two North Korean thrusts spearheaded by about 100 tanks. Late reports identified some of these tanks as Russian manufactured T-34's—identified as 35-ton tanks mounting 76mm. or 88mm. guns.

New York, June 28 (P)—Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower in commenting on the Korean situation said today: "The best chance for sustaining world peace was to take a firm stand, and when our government guaranteed the government of South Korea, there was no recourse but to do what President Truman said and did."

Washington, June 28 (P)—President Truman said today he hopes the United States decision to challenge the onward march of communism will mean "peace in the world." The President addressed the Reserve Officers Association whose members stood and cheered when he came before them at the Mayflower hotel.

Harrisburg, June 28 (P)—Two of Pennsylvania's leading political figures, members of opposing parties, stood together today as America faced a military crisis in Korea.

"Events of the last few days in Korea, where tanks are being met with sticks, have convinced me of the serious situation with which we are now faced," said Gov. James H. Duff, Republican.

Meanwhile U. S. Sen. Francis J. Myers, Democrat, declared that President Truman's decision to send military aid to South Korea is the only alternative to a "peaceless future."

Seoul Falls; Two American Planes Crash

Tokyo, June 28 (P)—The first American foot soldiers went into the South Korean shooting war tonight as U. S. airmen blasted six heavy Russian built tanks and lost two planes in crashes.

The first ground detachment was a signal corps outfit dispatched by General MacArthur to set up a field headquarters somewhere in the south of Korea.

As they moved in, Seoul, the southern capital, fell to the invading Communists. Kimpo, the capital's airfield 16 miles to the west, was in enemy hands.

A Red sweep to the south was only eight miles from Suwon, where less than a few Americans were reported. Suwon is 20 miles south of Seoul.

See Heavy Fighting

Pilots returning from American bombing attacks on the northern invaders, some of whose planes were shot up by Red forces machine guns, said they saw heavy fighting but were unable to determine how the battle was going.

Red forces were advancing on Suwon, the designated capital of the republic if Seoul fell. Communist troops are scarcely eight miles from Suwon.

No Pilots Injured

None of the pilots returning to Japan were injured. They reported no Russian made fighter planes were in the air against them.

On the high seas American naval forces maneuvered to counter any amphibious operation by the Communists. Their patrols covered Formosa, the Nationalist China bastion 100 miles off the Chinese coast.

Swift jets and light bombers were thrown into the battle on the orders of President Truman to save the young South Korean republic from being overrun by the Russian armed northern forces.

U.N. Supports Truman Order To Block Reds

Lake Success, June 28 (P)—The United Nations embarked upon an historic venture today by calling upon its members to use military force to back up a cease-fire order defied by Communist North Korea.

The decision was taken late last night by the Russian—boycotted Security Council, a few hours after President Truman announced the United States already was ordering planes and ships to support the invaded republic of (South) Korea.

The vote was 7 to 1, the minimum number of affirmative votes required. India and Egypt asked to be recorded as not participating because they had not received instructions. Yugoslavia cast the negative vote.

Momentous Action

The Council's action was momentous in several ways:

1—It gave its stamp of approval to Mr. Truman's bold plan of direct action to stop Communist aggression. This was the first time in its history that the Council had authorized the military sanctions provided by the U.N. Charter.

2—It was a clear warning to Russia, although Russia was not mentioned in the U. N. resolution, that the U. N. would not permit the seizure of countries by force.

3—It may have made the Russians angry enough that they will decide to make permanent their boycott which they started last January 10 in protest over the presence of Chinese Nationalist delegates. The Russians have insisted they would not return until representatives of Red China are seated.

LIND VOTES TO OVERRIDE VETO

Washington, June 28 (AP)—More than half of Pennsylvania's Congressional delegation failed to vote Monday as the House overrode President Truman's veto of a bill giving pay raises to World War II veterans in the postal field service.

Of the state's 33-man delegation only 15 chose to vote, 10 Republicans and five Democrats. Eight Republicans and 10 Democrats were recorded as not voting.

The veto was overridden by 217 to 72, more than the necessary two-thirds majority. All told, 146 members were listed as not voting.

Four Democrats and eight Republicans among Pennsylvania's delegation voted to override the veto while one Democrat and two Republicans cast their votes with the minority.

Here is how the Pennsylvanians voted:

Democrats for (4): Frank Buchanan, McKeesport; Daniel J. Flood, Wilkes-Barre; James F. Lind, York; and Francis E. Walter, Easton.

WIND AND HAIL HIT MEADVILLE

Meadville, Pa., June 28 (AP)—A fierce wind, hail and rainstorm battered trees, smashed windows and caused thousands of dollars damage in this northeastern Pennsylvania city.

Hailstones two and a half to three inches across rained down on the edge of the business section late Monday.

At least two persons were cut and bruised by the flying pellets. Two picnics were found dead on a street, apparently killed by the driving hail. One man, Archie Thompson, 61, was struck by a falling tree.

Hail smashed nearly 2,000 windows in three greenhouses. Parts of Meadville and all of Cambridge Springs were without electricity for nearly two hours.

Orchards and gardens were hard hit. Of seven apple trees in the Graham garden at nearby Guy's Mills, only two were standing after the storm. Wind blew roofs from several houses and knocked down some silos.

At Pittsburgh, 90 miles away, three persons were overcome on the streets by intense 93-degree heat. The temperature was just one degree below the all-time record for a June 26 in the steel city.

Youngsters in Dormont, a Pittsburgh suburb, had real cause to be burned up. Severe rains over the week-end left them not only hot, but high and dry—their swimming pool was closed.

Texas Lunch at Elks.

The Texas Lunch and Elks, who clash in the second game tonight in a battle for first place, won their games Tuesday evening in free-scoring affairs.

Jimmy Woods hammered out a homerun for the Elks with a runner aboard and two out in the top half of the seventh inning to give the Elks a 15-14 decision over the Moore in a wild affair. The victors played ragged ball as field despite effective hurling by Ross Sachs. The lead changed hands several times and the Moore apparently had the decision clinched with but one out to go when Woods rapped a hard smash along the left field foul line. Ross Sachs also homered for the Elks.

Five runs in the last of the first inning gave the league-leading Texas Lunch a lead which it held throughout to defeat the Lentz Legion 8-6. The setback was the ninth in a row for victory-less team-mates. Belber and Saylor rapped out homeruns for the winners.

Tonight's games, which are expected to draw a large crowd due to their importance, will start early. The initial game being listed for 6:30. Game times were moved up in order to permit fire company members on the field at 9 o'clock to begin work in preparation for their festival.

Harper Victor In PGA Tournament

Columbus, O., June 28 (AP)—The late of Virginia can continue in a state of elation.
Long used to crowing about its homebred hill-billy golf champion Sam Snead, from Hot Springs, it now has Chandler Harper, too.

Harper, of the Portsmouth Harpers, won the National PGA title yesterday. He defeated little-known Hank Williams of Seane, Pa., 4 and 3, in the scheduled 36-hole finale over the Rancho Siete Country club acres.

At 36, Harper succeeded Snead as PGA king. He became the oldest player to grab the crown since Jack Hucheson won in 1920 at the same age.

Harper is a very human sort of a guy and is a sports writer's champion. After his chores yesterday, he came to the press room. He was interviewed by the scribes while Scioto's Country club patrons waited for nearly one-half hour outside for trophy presentation ceremonies.

Little is known of the migration habits of the ocean perch, or rose-fish.

HANOVER TOPS LITTLESTOWN IN NBC GAME

Hanover gained the semi-finals of the National Baseball Congress district tournament being held at Littlestown by upsetting Littlestown 6-1 Tuesday evening. Both teams are members of the Adams County and Pen Mar leagues.

Hanover pushed over a run in the opening inning, added two in the sixth and, after Littlestown threatened mildly with a run in the top of the seventh, clinched the decision with three runs in the last of the same inning.

LeFevre hurled the route for the winners and gave up but five hits. Hanover reached the offerings of Unger for 16 safeties, Fuhrman pacing the attack with three singles.

Tonight another quarter-final game will be staged with the unbeaten Olmsted Flyers meeting the Winterstown team of York county.

Sports Roundup

By RUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, June 28 (AP)—Vincent

Richards, who might claim to be the Olympic tennis champion because nobody has won the title since he did in 1924, would like to see tennis restored to the Olympic program. . . . Now a 48-year-old, slightly pudgy executive, Vinnie has been trying to promote the professional game and has found it rather rough going. . . . So his idea to give everybody a fair shake is this: An Olympic tournament every four years for the individual amateur stars; Davis Cup competition every two years instead of annually and in the years when there is no Davis Cup play a world open championship. . . . "It's too expensive for some countries to compete in the Davis Cup every year and it keeps the players away from home too long," says Richards. . . . "That Olympic championship was the toughest I ever played in—60 sets against the best players in the world in singles, doubles and mixed doubles. . . . But that wasn't what killed it. It was the 'lining.' Sometimes you had to be sure that ball was a foot inside the line or it would be called out."

MOVING DAY

After a lengthy and inconvenient delay, Lehigh university's new $800,000 gymnasium was completed this spring and the keys were turned over to the university president, Dr. Martin D. Whitaker, with appropriate ceremonies. . . . Upon receiving them the prexy looked out at a group of coaches and physical ed instructors who had been using makeshift quarters for some five months and remarked: "The first thing I'll do is go up and unlock the door and let the athletic staff move their desks in from the street."

PATIENT PEOPLE

We constantly hear, or read, of some unknown suddenly coming into his own—largely because of long patience in perfecting himself in some manner. Recently a jobless G. I., unknown to the country, entered a golf tournament, and scored a 63, which broke the course record! He won't be out of a job long now. Apparently he had a high aim in his mind.

"An imperturbable demeanor comes from perfect patience. Quiet minds cannot be perplexed or frightened, but go on in fortune or misfortune at their own pace, like a clock during a thunder storm." So wrote Stevenson.

Usually it takes a long time to wait out fortune, but it pays off. The rewards are worth all the cares, discouragements, and setbacks. Blessed, indeed, are patient people, for they are an inspiration to all who know, or contact them, in everyday life.

It takes great patience to excel in any endeavor, as we all know so well. But, without it we get nowhere, so it's a fine investment. I am sure that patient people live longer—and happier. We can't stand still, however. We must keep moving toward some worthwhile objective. I am convinced that the lovers of freedom can prevent another cruel war if they will but have patience enough, and not keep pointing a gun at the other fellow.

When Jesus, in one of his beatitudes, said "Blessed are the meek," I am sure he didn't mean the people who sit around with folded hands, doing nothing—but the patient, hopeful, and cheerful, who keep going, doing the best they know, and then try to improve on that! Patient people—they should be called the "salt of the earth."

We see in nature plenty of examples of patience. Nothing that is lasting grows up quickly. It is only after years of patient plodding that the artist, writer, or scientist, begins to reap the rewards of his toil. Many of them have had to go through years of struggle, as well, and often hunger. I have noted that shut-ins and afflicted people exhibit unusual patience and cheer.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Work Fun."

Success, the business page extols. Is told in terms of profits made. By management that reaches goals. At which the dividends are paid.

In music, he achieves success. Who writes the most appealing song. In sports, the daily papers stress. The triumphs of the fleet and strong.

But scanning life at fullest length. From start until the journey ends. On something more than skill or strength. Mans ultimate success depends.

JAMBOREE CITY IS SHOOTING UP LIKE BEANSTALK

Valley Forge, Pa., June 28 (AP)—

The nation's newest and fastest-growing city—officially dubbed "Jamboree 1950"—shot up like a jet-powered beanstalk town, to be sure—a soon-to-be-torn-down boomtown along the silt Schuylkill river.

But practically any of the 30,000-plus Boy Scouts and leaders who will be in residence by tonight would not trade New York, Philadelphia and a dozen other metropolises for a single section of the 625-acre tract that houses their second National Jamboree.

By Friday, official opening day, some 47,000 will be on hand—about five times the number of the frost-bitten soldiers that stood by Gen. George Washington in these same rolling hills in the hard winter of 1777-78.

Scorching Weather

It's by no means wintry as the scouts arrive 173 years later. A merciless sun has driven the temperature into the 90's. Sunburn reddens the cheeks of the scouts and scorches the bald plates of some oldsters.

But they fall to with a will at the task of getting everything ship-shape by opening day—when President Truman, if the world situation permits, will come here from Washington to address the Jamboree as honorary president of the Boy Scouts of America.

Trained in self-reliance, the scouts do their own cooking and—under adult supervision—run their own show.

The menu is standard for all troops each day. It's been tested and pronounced fitting by the Mendham, N. J., troop, which also—by invitation of national authorities—passed on the charcoal that is being used for fires.

Special U.N. Troop

Besides scouts from all 48 states and the U.S. territories, there will be 385 scouts and leaders from 18 foreign countries and a troop representing the United Nations as a whole. This troop is made up of the sons of U.N. staff members.

Officials in charge of planning the Jamboree opening Friday are leaving nothing to chance. Among the supplies arriving at the camp site yesterday—70 gallons of poison ivy lotion.

One Shrimp Helps Snare Two Sharks

Savannah, Ga., June 28 (AP)—Want to know how to turn an insignificant shrimp into two snappy sharks?

This formula isn't guaranteed to work every time, but here's how Corner Train of Macon Ga., did it over the week-end:

He started out Saturday on the Vernon river, about seven miles from the open sea, with a little shrimp for bait. The shrimp caught a yellow tail. The yellow tail caught a catfish. The catfish caught a large sting-ray. The sting-ray caught a 6-foot, 8-inch shark. He went back Sunday morning and, using the same sting-ray again, pulled in a 7-foot, 10-inch shark weighing 190 pounds.

THIEF IN QUEEN'S HOME

London, June 28 (AP)—A man broke into Marlborough House, home of 83-year-old Queen Mary, early Saturday and severely beat up an aged housekeeper and her helper. A short time later detectives arrested a man found hiding in the basement of the building and held him for questioning.

The queen mother was asleep in another part of the house, an old landmark built by Sir Christopher Wren, and was not disturbed.

GROWERS CLAIM WILD LIFE IS RUINING CROPS

A number of upper Adams county farmers, whose fruit trees have been bearing the brunt of a major attack by deer and rabbits, hope the hunters have an excellent season this coming fall.

Among those reporting that their farms have been hit by a renewed invasion from the deer are Harry Weidner, Gardners R. D., near Mt. Tabor, Dale Showers, who lost a lot of tomatoes and Harry Dunlap, Biglerville R. 1, whose young cherry orchard has been practically ruined by deer and rabbits.

Weidner said the invasion by the deer on his farm along the Cumberland county line is reminiscent of the situation 25 to 30 years ago when the animals came down out of the mountains and wiped out an 11-acre apple orchard. State College men who examined the farm at that time said the damage totaled $4,000.

Prefer Cherry Trees
Weidner has no estimate of damage during the current invasion, when the deer seem to be preferring young cherry trees. He showed a number of young trees that were denuded of foliage and cut badly by the nibbling of the deer. Of 127 cherry trees planted by him and his son, Leon Weidner, 50 have had to be replaced so far. Weidner said the re-invasion by deer began three years ago and has grown more pronounced each year.

Spraying the trees has kept the deer away for a few days or a week, but at the end of that time they have come back to again nibble on the baby trees, Weidner said.

At the Showers farm the deer were said to have wiped out a large part of the tomato planting, traveling along row by row, eating all plants along the way.

At the Dunlap farm some 600 trees were badly nibbled, some of them believed to be beyond recovery. Up to 14 deer at one time were seen in the orchard, and after the deer finished their depredations, the rabbits took their turn in keeping the young trees stripped of foliage and in doing so have practically cut some trees to the ground.

Strawberries Not As Large This Year

The C. H. Musselman company of Biglerville Tuesday completed its processing of strawberries into jellies, after a two-week period of accepting the fruit.

Company officials said that the strawberries received this year were of good quality but were no as large as in a number of other years. They said the crop in general throughout the county was "good" but "not a bumper production."

Says U.S., Japan Must Cooperate

Carlisle, Pa., June 28 (AP)—The time has come for Japan and the United States "to pull together against the threat of communism," says a former member of General Douglas MacArthur's intelligence staff.

Rush made his comments while attending the opening session of the 52nd annual convention of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, Episcopal church laymen's group at Dickinson college.

About 150 delegates from the United States and nine foreign countries are attending the week long parley.

Interesting News Of Upper Adams Countians And Their Enterprises

HIGH COST OF FEEDS REDUCES CHICKEN FLOCKS

Higher feed costs and lower prices for eggs and poultry is causing a reduction in Adams county's more than 3,000 chicken flocks.

While countians were cutting back the numbers of their hens—generally by converting them into excellent dinners—farmers throughout the state were seeing the decimation of the fowls, according to a State Department of Agriculture report.

Locally the egg cooperative reported that the number of eggs it is receiving has been reduced somewhat by the decline in the number of chickens. While large flock owners are still sending large quantities of eggs to the cooperative many of the smaller producers have ceased to send in eggs at all.

Much of the reduction has been caused by a rigid culling of the less productive chickens, farmers said, thus tending to increase the number of eggs laid per chicken in the county, on an average.

Through the state during May, according to the Federal-State survey, the number of chickens declined but the egg production in the state for May totaled 318,000,000—an all time high for the month.

Although culling was heavy and flock reductions totaled 1,336,000, the average number of layers during May was 17,616,000, a record for the month, exceeding the previous high in 1944 by 3.5 per cent and nine per cent above May, 1949, according to Federal-State surveys announced by the State Department of Agriculture.

Pennsylvania egg production for the first five months of this year totals 1,575,000,000 and for the same period last year 1,491,000,000 indicating a new all-time record might be established for 1950, observers said.

Prices farmers received for eggs declined sharply from April 15 to May 15, dropping from 39.2 to 34.6 cents a dozen. In May, 1949, the average was 49.5 cents.

The relation between what producers pay for feed and receive for eggs was the least favorable for any month since June, 1944. The price of a dozen of eggs in May bought only nine pounds of feed whereas a year earlier a dozen eggs paid for 13.2 pounds of feed.

Live chicken prices were slightly lower in May than April but live turkeys showed a one-cent increase per pound. All prices were down sharply from a year earlier while feed costs, having increased during the month, were above May, 1949. The increase over April was from 15 to 20 cents a hundred pounds.

The average Pennsylvania farm flock layer produced slightly more than 18 eggs in May, this rate of lay being the lowest since 1945. However, the number of layers was sufficient to set a new record for the month.

PRODUCTION OF MILK BY COUNTY COWS GAINING

Pennsylvania and Adams county dairy cows keep on producing milk—in record amounts.

But the cows must have had a hunch that June is Dairy Month. They prepared for it by producing a record-breaking 600,000,000 pounds of milk during May, according to Federal-State surveys announced today by the Pennsylvania Department of Agriculture. In the county of the 496 cows on test in the DHIA 145 produced more than 1200 pounds of milk apiece and 224 produced more than 1000 pounds apiece.

May's milk output in the State was almost four per cent above the previous high of 579,000,000 pounds set in May last year.

However, milk production per cow on June 1 was an all-time high for any date of record. At 25 pounds average for that day it was one-half pound above the previous June 1 mark set in 1949.

Pennsylvania milk cow numbers at 976,000 showed a slight decline from the previous month but were 11,000 above the June 1949 estimate, the survey revealed.

The average price of Pennsylvania dairy cows in May 15 was $211.09, exceeding April 13 by $7.00 but $8.00

Outdoor Cooking Meeting Is Held

Methods of making buckets for out-of-door cooking were shown Monday afternoon at the meeting of the Arendtsville 4-H Campfire club held in the Arendtsville National bank. Miss Mary Jane Mickey, county home economics extension representative, was the instructor.

The making of knapsacks and discussion of various recipes for out-of-door cooking were among the activities at the meeting. The next session will be held July 10 at the home of Sarah Rice at 1:30 p.m.

Less than a year previous, farmers this May were averaging a return of $3.90 per hundred pounds of milk, wholesale, ten cents less than during April and 30 cents under May 1949.

The May price brought a return of only 8.4 cents a quart to farmers. Meanwhile, prices farmers pay for feeds advanced during the month from 10 to 55 cents hundred pounds.

Temperatures during May averaged slightly below normal but frequent rains favored growth of vegetation and most pastures improved greatly during the month. Special surveys revealed that on some dairy farms the percentage of feed obtained from pastures rose sharply from four per cent on May 1 to about 70 per cent on June 1.

Prospects for the 1950 hay crop have improved and farmers in most sections of the State anticipate good yields.

CHERRIES LATE THIS YEAR BUT CROP IS GOOD

Adams county fruit growers were preparing today for the annual battle to harvest better than 2,900 tons of cherries—a contest that will begin somewhere between July 4 and July 10, with the odds against the crop harvest beginning traditionally on the Fourth of July.

A cool, wet spring which held back the cherry crop has pushed the harvest about one week later than last year, growers said, adding that the time for the cherries to become ripe is still in the hands of the weather.

Local Pennsylvania State Employment office officials were looking anxiously for some 1,500 persons who want to help in handling the crop. So far about 500 have signed and approximately 2,000 will be needed.

Last year when a bumper crop of more than 3,000 tons of cherries was produced more than 3,000 persons were employed in orchards to garner the red ripe fruit.

High school age youngsters and even some younger are expected to again make up the bulk of the harvesters in the county's 1,200 cherry orchards. A small fruit, easy to pick and handled in relatively small containers, the harvest of cherries is usually a young man's and a young woman's game. It was pointed out, although hundreds of oldsters also join in the harvest.

With fruit growers predicting that this year's crop will be about 70 per cent of last year's bumper production, that will make the current crop above normal. Cold wet weather during pollination cut the number of cherries per tree, but growers pointed out that the wet spring made the cherries larger and juicier and as a result the weight will be greater, so the crop may possibly even equal 80 per cent of last year's record production.

Canning Date Not Set Up to now none of the canneries had announced a date for beginning the processing of the fruit, but all expected to set the date within a day or two, and most felt that possibly within a week or ten days they would begin production. At the Ottanta plant of the Knouse Foods Cooperative, the beginning date for cherry production may be delayed slightly because of extensive improvements being carried on there.

The cool, wet spring which held back the county's 300,000 cherry trees in their production operated however to give the trees probably their best year, as far as foliage and development goes, in some time. Principal danger this spring was from fungus diseases, but most growers were able to spray sufficiently to keep most of the diseases in check.

NEW SHIP HAS BABY-SITTER, AIR-CONDITION

Camden, N. J., June 28 (AP)—The U. S. President Jackson—19,600-ton American President lines cruise ship equipped with everything from air conditioning to a fulltime baby sitter—slid down the ways Tuesday.

The traditional bottle of champagne was broken over the new vessel's bow at the yards of the New York Shipbuilding corporation by Mrs. Alben W. Barkley.

Vice President Barkley made the principal address.

The President Jackson—a 536-foot giant capable of carrying 204 first class passengers at 19 knots—is the first of three sister ships to be launched. The other two, the President Adams and President Hayes, will take to the waters of the Delaware river early in September and November, respectively.

All three will be placed in round-the-world service early in 1951, calling at 30 ports in 17 countries in the 100-day circuit trip.

Each of the ships was built under close government supervision and is capable of quick conversion to the role of attack transport carrying 2,500 troops.

For peacetime service, the President Jackson will have sun and sports decks, an outdoor swimming pool and a children's playroom with a babysitter in attendance. The vessel is air-conditioned throughout. Each stateroom will have a private bath and telephone.

In addition to passengers, the liner will be equipped to carry 500,000 cubic feet of cargo.

SOX TAKE 5TH; PHILS BACK IN FIRST POSITION

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

Stout Steve O'Neill, the smiling Irishman, has plenty to smile about today. He is only big league manager with an unsullied slate. Since he took over the management of the Red Sox last Friday following the resignation of Joe McCarthy, the Red Sox haven't tasted defeat.

Under O'Neill's guidance, Boston has turned in five straight victories. The wonder of it is that all have been won on the road. That is where the Red Sox usually meet their Waterloo. Before O'Neill took charge, the Sox had dropped 11 of their last 13 games.

O'Neill had to wait until the 11th inning last night to find out whether he was still unbeaten as a manager this year. Two walks, a hit batsman and singles by Al Zarilla and pitcher Joe Dobson pushed across two runs in the 11th to enable Boston to defeat the Philadelphia Athletics, 7-5. Dobson had replaced starter Mel Parnell when the A's rallied for a run in the ninth to deadlock the score at 5-5.

Williams Sparks Attack
Ted Williams sparked the Red Sox 16-hit attack, knocking in two runs on three hits, his 22nd home run and two doubles. The victory boosted the Sox to within one game of the third place Cleveland Indians who dropped a 4-3 decision to the St. Louis Browns.

Boston, however, failed to gain on the American League leading Detroit Tigers who rallied for five runs in the sixth inning to defeat the Chicago White Sox, 9-3. The second place New York Yankees, beaten by Washington's Senators, 4-3 in 12 innings, fell four and a half games behind Detroit.

The Philadelphia Phillies took over first place in the National League race, replacing Brooklyn which dropped to third. A seventh inning two-run homer by Dick Sisler earned the Phils a 3-2 triumph over Boston and gave them a .003 percentage point lead of the St. Louis Cardinals. The Redbirds thrashed the Chicago Cubs in both ends of an afternoon doubleheader, 3-2 and 4-1.

The Dodgers fell two notches in absorbing a 10-3 lacing by the New York Giants. It marked the first time the Giants have been able to win from the Dodgers, who have come out on top in four previous tilts. Cincinnati trounced Pittsburgh, 8-3, to round out the National League schedule.

Detroit's Ted Gray yielded only five hits as he posted his second triumph in three days and his ninth of the season. Shortstop Johnny Ligon's triple off Ray Scarborough with the bases loaded highlighted the big sixth.

Nats Beat Yanks
Mickey Vernon's three-run homer in the top of the 12th was the decisive blow in Washington's third victory over the Yankees in five meetings this season. The Yankees rallied for two runs in their half of the 12th, but relief pitcher Mickey Harris got Phil Rizzuto to hit into a game-ending double play.

Home runs by Dick Kokos and Don Lenhardt, each with a man on base, ruined Bobby Feller's bid for his 200th major league triumph. Curt Simmons allowed seven hits to Warren Spahn's three, but the Philadelphia southpaw won his ninth game of the strength of Sisler's four-bagger.

Larry Jansen saw his scoreless pitching streak stopped after 30 consecutive runless innings but went on to hold Brooklyn to six hits for his eighth triumph, six of them in a row. A two-run homer by Roy Campanella in the second ended his skinn. The Cards got superlative pitching from left-handers Howie Pollet and Max Lanier. Each won his seventh game. Pollet allowed eight hits in the opener and Lanier scattered five hits in the nightcap.

Virgil Stallcup drove in three Cincinnati runs on three successive singles as Herm Wehmeier picked up his fifth win at the expense of the hapless Pirates.

AMERICANS WIN TENNIS MATCHES

Wimbledon, England, June 28 (AP)—American beauties on display in the British tennis championships are showing the crowds that their tennis rackets are not merely props for pretty pictures.

The girls are playing sharp, crowd-pleasing tennis. Also, they are going about their business without any of the fashion frills introduced last year by Gertrude (Gorgeous Gussy) Moran of lace panties fame.

Gussy appeared yesterday wearing a white tailored, sleeveless blouse with white shorts. She toyed with a Swedish opponent, Miss Lagerborg to advance to the third round in straight sets.

Twenty-two-year-old Nancy Morrison of Palm Beach, Fla., provided one touch of color with blue ribbons holding her tight pistols.

The American women lost two of their number, cutting the survivors down to 12. Ousted were Betty Rosenquest of South Orange, N. J., who lost to France's Mrs. G. Bucaille, and Marta Barnett of Coral Gables, Fla., who bowed to glamorous Nancy Chaffee of Los Angeles.

All seven seeded American men, headed by New York's Billy Talbert, reached the round of 32 without any narrow squeaks. The only casualty was unseeded Tony Trabert of Cincinnati, who lost to Britain's Tony Mottram.

ROBINSON HAS BUSY SCHEDULE

New York, June 28 (AP)—What boxing slump? Sugar Ray Robinson, 48 1/2 welter king and 1 1/2 middleweight champ, pops the question.

It looks like a long summer for Sugar Ray if things go according to the work schedule of his manager, George Gainford.

George unfolded his program yesterday in Andy Niederreiter's office, where a Robinson-Charlie Fusari welter title bout August 7 at Jersey City's Roosevelt stadium was announced.

Robinson, in line with a promise to Columnist Walter Winchell, treasurer of the Damon Runyan Cancer fund, will accept only $1 for the Fusari bout. The rest of his share will go to the fund.

Fusari, the Irvington, N. J., milkman, signed a contract calling for 25 per cent.

Before the Fusari bout, Robinson will risk his newlywon Pennsylvania version of the middleweight crown at Wilkes-Barre, Pa., July 19. The opponent will be Jose Basora, the Then comes the battle with Fusari. Robinson's first welter defense since he whipped Kid Gavilan at Philadelphia last July.

Gainford said the next move will be a late August bout at Pittsburgh with Lee Sala of Donora, Pa. Once again the Penny middleweight crown will be at stake, provided Ray whips Basora. This one is tentative. Matchmaker Jack McGinley says he has made "no overtures."

Then in September, Gainford plans another welter defense against lightweight champ Ike Williams at Philadelphia. Neither the Sala nor Williams bout have reached the contract-signing stage.

BALK CATHOLIC SCHOOL HELP

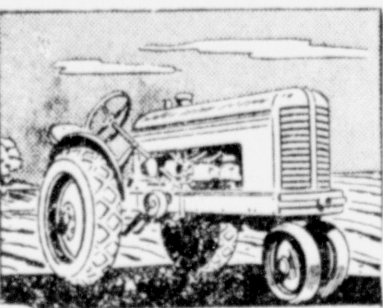

Collegeville, Pa., June 28 (AP)—The Evangelical and Reformed church's general synod was on record today as favoring the "principles" of federal aid, but only after a vigorous verbal battle among delegates to the synod's eighth triennial session.

The delegates Monday backed the aid principles 129 to 83 but asserted that they "oppose any efforts by Roman Catholic officials to secure public funds to maintain a private school system."

"Welfare services such as school lunch and health programs," the delegates resolved, "should be provided for through legislation and administered by agencies separate from those having to do with the schools themselves. x x x"

"Parochial school pupils do not surrender these rights to share in the services provided for the general welfare of children and youth."

In other resolutions, the delegates approved the goal of "a non-segregated church in a non-segregated society" and called on Congress "to end discrimination in employment, housing, schooling, exercises of the franchise and in the protection afforded by the courts."

Arrest Man For Assault With Axe

Waynesburg, Pa., June 28 (AP)—Police jailed a 65-year-old man today in an assault with an axe on his landlady and the man who lived next door.

Officers identified the prisoner as Max Enshoff of nearby Pitt Gas. They arrested him at Clarksburg, about a mile from the scene of the attack.

They said Enshoff was suffering from several deep cuts, apparently self-inflicted.

The victims are Mrs. Mary Michaeloff, 62, a widow, at whose home Enshoff roomed, and Walter Phoebe, about 57, who lived in a small house near the Michaeloff residence. Mrs. Michaeloff suffered a multiple fracture of the skull and lacerations of the head. She is reported in fair condition. Phoebe, also suffering a skull fracture, is in good condition. Both are expected to recover.
